Rancho de Pascua

Rancho in the Canary Islands means a group of people, many people. _____

_____. They are introduced into the Canary Islands by the Franciscan order in the late 15th century and during the 16th and 17th centuries.

Los Ranchos toured the homes of the people, singing their plaintive songs and praying for the dead. _____

_____. They came from the November 1st, the eve of All Souls' Day until February 2nd, Candlemas Day. _____ Thus some Ranchos, over time, became Ranchos de Pascua, as it is the case with all Ranchos from Lanzarote.
